"Love, like anything, isn't the one or the other thing. It's love that's all about knowing the other, and trying to put yourself in the other's shoes, understanding the other, seeing it as a whole, because we have shared our lives for many moments and years for the love, because we have shared our lives for many moments and years for the love, because we have shared our lives for many moments and years for the love."

"To me, love, spirituality and life are all the same thing. To me they're all about honoring the circle, and they're just different ways of defining the same understanding. Our society as a whole, because we have placed our love for money above our love for life, has devalued the sacred and devalued love."
