

Be a Hero for a Better World

"Charity is commendable; everyone should be charitable. But justice aims to create a social order in which, if individuals choose not to be charitable, people still don't go hungry, unschooled or sick without care."

Bill Moyers

(1934-)

Bill Moyers is an American broadcast journalist who received over 30 Emmy Awards and 10 Peabody Awards during his 35 year career, mostly on PBS. He earned a reputation of broadcasting integrity, by producing hundreds of hours of television interviews with the world's greatest thinkers, and documentaries on nearly every aspect of American political and social life.

Before turning to journalism, Bill Moyers worked for President John F. Kennedy's newly created Peace Corps; then served as special assistant to President Lyndon Johnson. He played a major role in President Johnson's task forces on civil rights and ending poverty in America.

Bill Moyers announced his retirement from broadcast journalism in December 2004, but returned to PBS with Bill Moyers Journal in April 2007. In 2006, Bill Moyers was honored with a Lifetime Emmy that summed up his magnificent career: "Bill Moyers has devoted his lifetime to the exploration of the major issues and ideas of our time and our country, giving television viewers an informed perspective on political and societal concerns."

Bill Moyers was born on June 5, 1934 in Hugo, Oklahoma
